

Kansas Foundation for Agriculture in the Classroom

Connect your classroom to Kansas agriculture

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY

Learn how agriculture can be integrated into all subjects with hands-on agricultural experiences. Participants will receive standards-based resource materials for all subjects and will have the opportunity to tour several agricultural operations, allowing them to learn about Kansas agriculture from Kansas farmers and ranchers.

Explore the diversity of agriculture through hands-on, standards-based activities that focus on science, reading and math.

Learn to develop interactive lesson plans that go hand-in-hand with Kansas educational standards and provide cross-curricular integration of all subjects using Kansas agriculture as the teaching tool.

Teach students science, reading and math using Kansas agriculture, so they discover our ecosystem, investigate the world around us and learn why agriculture makes it all happen.
